NEW ZEALAND RACK OF LAMB

Why New Zealand Lamb?

New Zealand lamb is known for its clean, mild flavor since the sheep are primarily grass-fed on the country's lush pastures.

For a rack of lamb, you'll want to look for meat that's pink to light red in color with white (not yellow) fat marbling. When serving, plan for about 3-4 chops per person, and try to choose a rack that's evenly sized for consistent cooking.

Serving Suggestions

Rack of lamb pairs beautifully with classic sides that complement its rich, savory flavor. Roasted baby potatoes seasoned with rosemary and garlic make an excellent accompaniment, while steamed green vegetables like asparagus add a fresh element to the plate.

Ways To Cook Our NEW ZEALAND LAMB!

Step 1: Preheat the Oven

Begin by preheating your oven to 425°F (220°C).

This ensures that the oven is adequately heated when you're ready to bake the lamb.

Step 2: Sear the Rack of Lamb

Using a grill or a pan over high heat, sear the rack of lamb for 4 minutes on the meatier side and 2 minutes on the other side.

This step enhances flavor by creating a crispy crust.

Step 3: Prepare for Baking

Place the seared rack of lamb on a foil-lined baking sheet.

The foil will make cleanup easier and prevent sticking as the lamb bakes.

Step 4: Bake the Lamb

Position the baking sheet on the lower middle rack of your preheated oven.

Bake the lamb for approximately 12-15 minutes, depending on your preferred level of doneness.

Step 5: Rest the Lamb

Carefully remove the lamb from the oven and loosely tent it with foil.

This allows the juices to redistribute throughout the meat.

Let the lamb rest for 10 minutes before serving to ensure optimal tenderness and flavor.
